

Interviewer: J. Mikos
Date:
Place: N.Y.C.

PERSONAL INVENTORY

1. Code 23-M
2. Age 21
3. Male
4. Single
5. Roman Catholic
6. Born in a village in County Somogy
7. Respondent spent most of his life in Csurgó, County Somogy
8. Respondent was in Szeged when revolution broke out. He was studying at the medical department.
9. Respondent was never abroad
10. Respondent was in military service for one month in July, 1956
11. He is a gymnasium graduate, was graduated in 1954. He studied two semesters, was in third semester when revolution broke out.
12. After graduation from high school, he held a job in '54-'55 for six months as an apprentice in a steel products factory in Budapest (The Silverware and Steel Products Factory) In the summers of '54, '55 he spent one month each year as a cashier in a state enterprise in County Somogy.
13. Parents living in village in County Somogy:
father aged 49; mother aged 44
14. Sister aged 11
15. Left Hungary November 27, 1956

16. Arrived U.S. December 14, 1956
17. In the U.S. he spent 1½ months at Bard College and _____
He has spent two months at Fordham University, N.Y.
18. His immediate plans are to continue studying and go to medical school to get his M.D. Later he wants to become a psychiatrist.
19. He was interviewed by the Radio Free Europe in Munich, Germany, but he answered on four or five questions on how he fled from Hungary, and about his opinion of R.F.E., and other radios/listened to in Hungary. He was also interviewed at Fordham by the campus paper and was asked only a few superficial questions "as Americans like to ask such questions, unfortunately," he remarked
20. He can read Russian pretty well, and understands it pretty well, but he writes and speaks it only fair.