

#37-44

Interviewer: Julius S. Nyikos

PERSONAL INVENTORY

1. 37-M
2. 34 years
3. Male
4. Single
5. Roman Catholic
6. He was born in Budapest and spent most of his life in Budapest
7. He was in Budapest before the outbreak of the revolution
9. Respondent went abroad in the following places: he was in Prague, Czechoslovakia in 1945, and in 1946; he spent two weeks each time there. In 1945, he attended a preparatory conference of the World Convention of the International Union of students; in 1946, he attended the World Convention of International Union of students. In 1946, one week in Bucharest with the Romanian University students in a conference as student leader. In 1946, he spent another week at an international conference at Belgrad, Yugoslavia with college student leaders.
10. Respondent didn't serve in the Hungarian military services.
11. Respondent's education can be described the following way: After graduation from High School, (Gymnasium), he attended the University of Economics which was part of the technical university at Budapest, and he received a PHD in economics.
12. Respondent was employed at the Paul Teleki Social Economic Institute from 1945 -1948. Respondent worked at this institute on economic theories, and economic history. He conducted several researches of his own; one, way a research in currency inflation and stabilization/ credit; another the sociological and economical theory of anarchism; and a third in the relation of prices in agriculture and in industry.
13. Respondent's parents are both dead.
14. He had no brothers or sisters.
15. He has no children.
16. Respondent left Hungary on the 4th of Dec., 1956. He arrived in the USA on March 14th, 1957. In the US, he spent most of his time in New York City.

His immediate plans are concerned with the Yale Graduate School of Sociology, economics, because he would like to get an American PHD.

37-M

37-41
HLR

I / 2

Respondent was interviewed by Mr. Roman Bernard of the Free Europe Press. He was given the so-called type #2 interview, and that took a day.

Respondent speaks and writes French and German.