

travelling saleswoman: she was peddling religious articles all over the country.

13. Respondent's parents are not living.
14. No brothers or sisters.
15. No children.
16. Respondent left Hungary November 17th, 1956, and arrived in the United States on December 18th, 1956.
18. She has only been at Camp Kilmer, then for a short time in Scarsdale, N.Y., and now she lives in New York City.
19. Her immediate plans consist of learning English as soon as possible and as well as possible, then she intends to become a travelling saleswoman.
20. Respondent has not been interviewed by an Western Organization excepting the American Consulate General in Salzburg, Austria.
21. Respondent speaks Hungarian, Italian, some German, and also some English.

Interviewer: M. Podhorasky
Date: September 4th, 1957
Place: New York City

I. PERSONAL INVENTORY

1. Code name: F-83
2. Age 38
3. Female
4. Single
5. Roman Catholic
6. Budapest, Hungary
7. Respondent spent most of her time in Budapest, Hungary.
8. Just before the Revolution, respondent lived in the 12th District of Budapest, which is the Buda side.
9. Respondent spent one week in Yugoslavia in 1937 and three weeks also there in 1938, visiting her father.
10. --
11. Eight grades.
12. Regarding respondent's occupation, she had a concession from the Municipal Offices for the sale of a newspaper and tobacco in Budapest from 1939 till 1948. As of 1949, until 1951, she worked as a disher in a hardware store. In 1951, for three months, she was employed as a store clerk in a shipping company. Later, in the same year, she attended a special commercial training course because she wanted to get a better job. However, she was unable to do so. In 1952, for eight months, she was employed as a bus conductor for the Budapest Municipal Bus Lines. As of 1954, June, she received a license and became a

83-F