  31. "7" The respondent seemed to be still afraid of the Hungarian government. I think she is a person who respects very much authority and that she still respects the Hungarian authorities and is threatened every time she would give information about conditions in Hungarian offices, etc.
  32. "8" I think she, maybe unconsciously, tried to flatter somewhat. She asked me several times when not sure what she should answer: "Well, what would you say? How is it in America?"
  33. "9"
  34. A little - rather, very little
