

Copy #12

August 1957

Paris

note: four pages of tables showing organization of Hungarian Workers' Party and of the political and party machinery in the army are missing from this ~~interview~~ copy of the interview

- 1. FLL-1
- 2. [REDACTED]
- 3. Paris
- 4. 27
- 5. Male
- 6. Hungarian
- 7. none
- 8. mother Catholic, father Calvinist
- 9. married
- 10. 1 age: 5
- 11. Officer, Political Instructor in the Army
- 12. Locksmith
- 13. ---
- 14. Worker
- 15. 1949 - lieutenant
- 16. Yugoslavia, 1956-57
- 17. ---
- 18. Yes
- 19. Stalin (Petofi) Military Political Academy
- 20. Budapest
- 21. Budapest
- 22. Svatmir
- 23. former Communist
- 24. end of February 1957
- 25. Yugoslavia, June - France
- 26. ---
- 27. ---
- 28. ---
- 29. ---
- 31. "10"
- 32. 8
- 33. "10"
- 34. 8

Respondent is a straightforward and honest young man, who is anxious to learn, but does not impress one as being too intelligent. He was a member of the Communist Party and believed its truth up to the summer of 1955. Although his conversion seems to be radical and absolutely sincere, his thinking is still somewhat confused; e.g. his views on his country's past remain very much biased. His bitter childhood experiences left an indelible mark on his soul.