

tion. His high degree of education and abilities enabled him to immediately get to the weak points. He is quite familiar with psychology, analysis and aptitude tests. His mother-in-law is chief doctor and director of the insane asylum at Lipótmező and, at the same time, is one of Hungary's outstanding psychoanalysts. The majority of the leaders of the past twenty years are known to Respondent personally and he has an excellent memory. He is familiar with and knows by heart the history of the roles played by them. He is personally acquainted with the top leaders of the Communist Party hierarchy and was a member of the close group surrounding Imre Nagy. In addition, his methods of thinking, his ability to perceive problems, render Respondent a very interesting individual.

- 31. "10" - No
- 32. "10" - No
- 33. "10"
- 34. Not at all

NOTE: In lieu of Section "W" see part of interview entitled: "Respondent's background".

NO. 615 "A" PAGESHEET AND RATING

JLB

p. 1

August-September, 1957
Zürich-Dübendorf

1. SLB-2
2. [REDACTED]
3. Kriesbach Strasse 14, Dübendorf/Zürich
4. 43
5. M
6. Hungarian
7. Reformed
8. Reformed
9. Married
10. 3
14, 10, 4
11. Horticulturist
12. "
13. Librarian
14. Intelligentsia
15. February 1939-November 1941
16. '26, '27, '32 - Austria; '44, '45, '49 - Romania; '44, '45 - Yugoslavia
17. No
18. No
19. Diploma in Horticulture
20. Budapest
21. State Farm of Soroksaár
22. County of Pest
23. Socialist
24. December 15, 1956
25. Austria (4 months), Zürich-Dübendorf
26. No
27. No
28. U.N. Committee
29. Respondent's intelligence is way above average, he is a born debater. He is well read, and his knowledge of human character is excellent; however, the first impression gained by him seems to have a determining influence for the future. Much warmth and humane features can be found in him but, in spite of these, he strives to ruthlessly carry out issues along the lines of his beliefs, yet, he does not adopt the method of: end justifies the means. He is open and frequently rudely sincere and he doesn't care how high the pedestal is on which the criticized person sits, of Respondent feels that he is right. One can easily visualize that for this reason he was respected and also feared to a certain degree and sometimes even disliked - he does not hesitate to create an affair for the Council of Ministers from little issues which arose on the state farm he administered, if the respective problem was created by a bureaucratic nonsense or by corrup-